VISA FOR THE FOREIGN DELEGATES:

- As a basic policy, each delegate applying for a visa to Indonesia must possess a valid passport with a minimum validity term of six months, minimum of two blank passport pages for validation, and matching information between the country represented and the holder's nationality. General information on Indonesia Visitor Visa can be found here.
- Delegates can use either diplomatic and service passports or ordinary passports to enter Indonesia. Indonesia's government has a short visit visa-free agreement with several countries. The List of participating nations can be found here.
- Delegates who are not exempted from the agreement but intend to travel using a diplomatic or service passport may apply for a multiple-entry diplomatic or service visa. Kindly contact Indonesia Embassy in your country for more information.
- Delegates with ordinary passport holders can apply for Visa on Arrival during visit to Bali. The list of countries that can use these facilities can be found on the following link. In addition to passport, delegates should show return ticket, and should pay Rp500.000,- (approx. US$ 35), and could stay for a maximum period of 30 days.
- E-visa is also available, and the delegates may visit <https://evisa.imigrasi.go.id/> to check the requirements for the E-visa to enter Indonesia.
- All international travelers required to fill in an electronic self-declaration form called SATUSEHAT Health Pass <https://sshp.kemkes.go.id/>. It is recommended that you complete this form prior to departure to avoid delays when arriving in Indonesia.

MEDICAL AND TRAVEL INSURANCE:

All delegates are advised to arrange for their own medical and travel insurance coverage, prior to their trip to Bali, Indonesia.

CUSTOMS REQUIREMENTS:

All travelers entering Indonesia are required to submit electronic custom declaration within three (3) days prior to their scheduled arrival. For further details, please refer to <https://ecd.beacukai.go.id/cdonline.html>

WEATHER CLOTHING:

In May, the days in Bali are hot yet bearable, with an average daytime temperature of 28°C. The hottest part of the day can reach 33°C. You may keep yourselves prepared for this. The dress code are as follows:

- Formal wear for meeting and Forum.
- International dress for Gala Dinner.
- Casual wear for outdoor and field trip.

OTHERS:

Currency and Banking

The currency in Indonesia is the Indonesian Rupiah (Rp). The government regulates that all transactions done in Indonesia must use Rupiah as a legal tender. Authorized money changers are available at the airport and near the meeting venue. Delegates can also withdraw Rupiah through Automated Teller Machines (ATMs). Major credit cards are widely accepted in most hotels, restaurants, and stores. ATMs are also widely available in Bali. You can withdraw money from any ATM with the logo of your card network operator.

Electricity

The electricity supply voltage in Indonesia is 220 Volt with plug types C and F. Delegates using appliances with different voltage systems should bring an international travel adapter or power converter.

Drinking Water

Tap water is not potable. Delegates are advised to consume bottled water only.
